Dear Friends:

Graduation Day! Forty-seven fine looking graduands, leaving us today for high callings! Pretty exciting day!

- Patrick is taking up a fledgling church planted by a mother church in Mufilira. We like to see such steps forward. Often the newborn baby church ends up catching up with the mother! Same story for Joshua, Peter and Ingwe!
- Aaron's family owns a large construction business in Lusaka. He is being touted as future company director — empowering a vibrant youth ministry at the same time.

- Ellen is putting her BThEd degree to work growing a Christian school in Western Province....

Now that studies are over (at least for now) wedding bells are sounding! The future is looking bright!

Strike up the band! Call out the praise team! Invite family and dignitaries!

As for the Kerrs... a new rosewood front door for the occasion!

“Behold I set before you an open door which no one can shut.”
